

Availability of Source Code

Where, and to the extent, required by the applicable open source license terms, we provide or make available the corresponding source code and related materials for the relevant covered software components.

To obtain the source code, please contact us and, where available, provide the applicable vehicle model and market region, vehicle identification number (VIN) or other identifier, software version, the component name and license reference (if known), and your contact and delivery details.

We may charge a shipping & handling fee to address our costs, as permitted by the applicable license terms and/or applicable law.

To obtain the source code, please contact us by e-mail at oss@saicmotor.com

Thank you!
